This landmark volume provides a broad-based, state-of-the-art overview of current knowledge and research into second language teaching and learning. Fifty-seven chapters are organized in eight thematic sections:

- *social contexts of second language learning;
- *research methodologies in second-language learning, acquisition, and teaching;
- *contributions of applied linguistics to the teaching and learning of second language skills;
- *second language processes and development;
- *teaching methods and curricula;
- *issues in second or foreign language testing and assessment;
- *identity, culture, and critical pedagogy in second language teaching and learning; and
- *important considerations in language planning and policies.
