Sinopsis

ISBN: 9780195115468

This book provides a thorough and broad-based survey of gerontology. The authors are leading experts in their respective domains, and each chapter reflects the current trends and emerging issues in the field. Topics include mental health, ethnicity, bereavement, caregiving, work, retirement, nursing homes, public policy issues, and much more. This book emphasizes the need to take a broader view of age-related phenomena.
