Liz and John Soars are highly experienced teachers and teacher-trainers, well-known for their contributions to EFL teaching and methodology. John was Director of Studies at International House London, where Liz was Director of Teacher Training. She was also co-chief examiner for the Cambridge/RSA DELTA examination for over five years.

They are best known for the creation of the Headway series for adult learners of English. Written and developed over the last fifteen years, the series has won international acclaim and helped redefine standards for English language coursebooks.

Titles within the series include the original edition of Headway, New Headway English Course, and American Headway. They have also co-written a number of supplementary and video courses including Making Headway, Headway Pronunciation, New Headway Pronunciation Course, Headway Video, and New Headway Video, all published by Oxford University Press.
