No matter what little David does, his mother's reply is always the same: "No, David!" "That's enough, David!" "Come back here, David!" But despite the broken vase, the muddy carpet, and David's other mishaps, his mother pulls him close, and with a warm embrace, tells him, "Yes, David...I love you!" Inspired by a semiautobiographical story Shannon wrote as a child, this charming picture book is packed with fun-filled chaos, as well as a loving, reassuring message for parents and children alike. The raucous illustrations of little David doing everything he's not supposed to do are certain to charm both adults and children.
