This concise anthology presents a broad selection of writings by leading revolutionary figures of the world. Spanning three centuries, the works include such milestone documents as the Declaration of Independence (1776), the Declaration of the Rights of Man (1789), and The Communist Manifesto (1848). Also included are writings by the Russian revolutionaries Lenin and Trotsky; Marat and Danton of the French Revolution; in addition to selections by Jean-Jacques Rousseau, Tom Paine, Emma Goldman, Mohandas Gandhi, Mao Tse-tung, and others. An essential collection for anyone interested in the issues, ideas, and history of the major revolutions of modern times, this book will also find an eager audience among students. Dover original selection of writings from standard editions.
