The Phenomenological Mind is the first book to properly introduce fundamental questions about the mind from the perspective of phenomenology. Key questions and topics covered include:

- | what is phenomenology?
- | naturalizing phenomenology and the cognitive sciences
- | phenomenology and consciousness
- | consciousness and self-consciousness
- | time and consciousness
- | intentionality
- | the embodied mind
- | action
- | knowledge of other minds
- | situated and extended minds
- | phenomenology and personal identity.

This second edition includes a new preface, and revised and improved chapters. Also included are helpful features such as chapter summaries, guides to further reading, and a glossary, making The Phenomenological Mind an ideal introduction to key concepts in phenomenology, cognitive science and philosophy of mind.
