This delightful story has its origins in a traditional poem. In 1920, Parrish came across Saunder's manuscript for The Knave of Hearts, and decided he would like to illustrate it. The result, published in 1925, was a charming tale known for its many iconic illustrations. This edition is presented in hardcover, as it was in its original printing, and includes the full compliment of Parrish's twentythree illustrations carefully restored to provide a thrillingly vivid experience to accompany this wonderful story...
