A call-to-arms from Nobel Prize-winning economist and best-selling author Paul Krugman.

The Great Recession is more than four years old_and counting. Yet, as Paul Krugman points out in this powerful volley, "Nations rich in resources, talent, and knowledge_all the ingredients for prosperity and a decent standard of living for all_remain in a state of intense pain."

How bad have things gotten? How did we get stuck in what now can only be called a depression? And above all, how do we free ourselves? Krugman pursues these questions with his characteristic lucidity and insight. He has a powerful message for anyone who has suffered over these past four years_a quick, strong recovery is just one step away, if our leaders can find the "intellectual clarity and political will" to end this depression now.
